Lauren Denk receives gift

At the 50th Birthday Celebration of Beta Theta, the Harrisburg Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma International (an organization of key women educators from 17 counties), presented Lauren Denk, of Susquehanna Township a gift of $500 to continue her education in elementary education. She is attending Bloomsburg University. President Donna Winch, who attended the meeting impersonating the first president of Delta Kappa Gamma, Louise Harris, presented the award. Louise was the president when the chapter was newly formed in May of 1963. Louise taught Latin and English at Susquehanna High School. She passed at the age of 95 in 2010. Beta Theta also presented $500 to Melissa Koontz, another Grant-in-aid recipient. Melissa was unable to attend the celebration because she was graduating from Shippensburg on that day. The meeting was held in the Community Room at Ronald McDonald House in Hershey.
